2. [] Met with Mr. Ralph Preston, House Appropriations Committee staff, and told him that the Agency is continuing to explore possible courses of action concerning the Radios and that I would like some time, possibly later this week, to bring John Clarke, OPPB, by and discuss the matter with him. Mr. Preston said he would make himself available.

12. [] Met with Bill Woodruff, Counsel, Senate Appropriations Committee, and discussed with him our thoughts about funds to cover the close out of the Radios if that should be necessary. Woodruff expressed his disagreement with this idea. I also talked with Woodruff about coming out to the Agency to talk about the hearings which they propose to call on the intelligence community budget. See Memorandum for the Record.
